PUBLIC REPORT
—OF A—
POLICEMAN.
I have not enjoyed good health for several years past, yet have not allowed it to interfere with my labor. Every one belonging to the laboring class knows the inconvenience of being obliged to labor when the body, from debility, almost refuses to perform its daily task. I never was a believer in dosing with medicines; but having heard the VEGETINE spoken of so highly, was determined to try it, and shall never regret that determination. As a tonic (which every one needs at some time) it surpasses anything I ever heard of. It invigorates the whole system; it is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood. There are many of my acquaintances who have taken it, and all unite in praise of its satisfactory effect.
Especially among the aged class of people, it imparts to them the one thing most needful in old age—nights of calm, sweet repose, thereby strengthening the mind as well as the body. One aged lady, who has been suffering through life from scrofula, and has become blind from its effects, having tried many remedies with no favorable result, was induced by friends to try the VEGETINE. After taking a few bottles, she obtained such great relief that she expressed a wish for her sight, that she might be able to look upon the man who had sent her such a blessing.
Yours respectfully,
O. P. H. HODGE, Police Officer, Station 6, Boston, Mass., May 9, 1871.

HEARTFELT PRAYER.
ST. PAUL, Aug. 22, 1861.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I should be wanting in gratitude, if I failed to acknowledge what the VEGETINE has done for me. I was attacked about eleven months since with Bronchitis, which settled into Consumption. I had night sweats and fever chills; was distressed for breath, and frequently spit blood; was all emaciated, very weak, and so low that my friends thought my case hopeless.
I was advised to make a trial of the VEGETINE, which, under the providence of God, has cured me. That he may bless the use of your medicine to others, as he has to me, and that his divine grace may attend you, is the heartfelt prayer of your admiring, humble servant, BENJAMIN PETTENGILL.
P. S.—Mine is but one among the many cures your medicine has effected in this place. B. P.

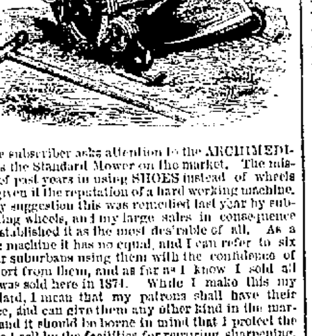

MAKE IT PUBLIC.
SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 9, 1871.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I have heard from very many sources of the great success of VEGETINE in cases of Scrofula Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Catarrh, and other diseases of kindred nature. I make no hesitation in saying that I know VEGETINE to be the most reliable remedy for Catarrh and General Debility.
My wife has been troubled with Catarrh for many years, and at times very badly. She has thoroughly tried every supposed remedy that we could hear of, and with all this she has for several years been gradually growing worse, and the discharge from the head was excessive and very offensive.
She was in this condition when she commenced to take VEGETINE; I could see that she was improving on the second bottle. She continued taking the VEGETINE until she had used from twelve to fifteen bottles. I am now happy in informing you and the public (if you choose to make it public) that she is entirely cured, and VEGETINE accomplished the cure after nothing else would. Hence I feel justified in saying that VEGETINE is the most reliable remedy, and would advise all suffering humanity to try it, for I believe it to be a good, honest, vegetable medicine, and I shall not hesitate to recommend it.
I am, &c., respectfully,
L. C. CARDELL,
Store 451 Broadway.

VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceration, cures constipation and regulates the bowels.

Has Entirely Cured Me.
BOSTON, October, 1870.
MR. STEVENS,:
Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of whooping cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE and after taking a few bottles was fully restored to health.
I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I [illegible] me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others, with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take; and I can cheerfully recommend it.

LAWN MOWERS,
PHOSPHATES, &c.

The subscriber asks attention to the ARCHIMEDIAN as the Standard Mower on the market. The mistake of past years in using SHOES instead of wheels had given it the reputation of a hard working machine. At my suggestion this was remedied last year by substituting wheels, and my large sales in consequence has established it as the most desirable of all. As a horse machine it has no equal, and I can refer to six of our suburbans using them with the confidence of support from them, and as far as I know I sold all that was sold here in 1874. While I make this my standard, I mean that my patrons shall have their choice, and can give them any other kind in the market, and it should be borne in mind that I protect the goods I sell by the facilities for repairing, sharpening, &c., making this a specialty. I am offering good second hand mowers from $5 to $15, and so am prepared to supply the entire trade of the Island at as low prices as in other cities, or at any other dealer.
I would urge the advantage of WILSON'S PHOSPHATE, as a top-dressing for Lawns (giving a quick, rich green) as a garden or hot house fertilizer, and can warrant that it is not composed largely of fish guano, worth $12 per ton on the market, or mother earth worth less; once in use it will be as highly appreciated for the above purposes as by our farmers who buy it by the ton as an economical manureal investment. Five tons more on hand this day, with bone and other fertilizer constantly in stock. The season is cold and late, worms will be hungry, help the crops and they will you.
CORCORAN'S SELF-REGULATING WINDMILL, For Pumping or driving machinery, up to forty horse power. Especial attention is called to this power as superior, and an economical saver of labor, with reference to Col. George E. Waring, Philip Caswell, Esq., and George P. Lawton, of Newport, using them. It is appropriate for the purposes of pumpeng for dwellings, barns and green houses, so turning our coast breezes to mechanical utility while it invigorates our health as well. Please call on us at

HOW TO LIVE.

AN APPEAL TO PEOPLE TO BE SIMPLE EVEN IF THEY ARE ECCENTRIC. THE EVILS OF SHOWY FURNITURE AND INTRICATE CLOTHES.

The remedy for over care in household affairs is in simplification a return to more natural ways of living. It is the artificiality of our lives that overburdens them over-burdens them both with care and expense. Comfort is a most universally sacrificed in our strain after empty appearances. In the good old times all furniture was made pretty much alike, in regard to strength and style, the difference in expense resting on the kind of wood used and the handwork or carving or inlaying employed in its manufacture. The age of machinery has brought in gimcracks and rococo, and the houses of people of moderate means are crowded with showy, inferior furniture, expensive in the fact that it soon tarnishes, warps, cracks, falls apart, and becomes old fashioned without becoming antique. The care of keeping this mess of trash in order is one of the severe taxes on the housewife. Instead of the old fashioned cabinet in which precious bits of china were stored away from the dust behind glass doors, we have etagere, table and mantlepieces loaded with gew-gaws that require hours of daily care to be kept in anything like decent order. The comfort of the old time sitting room is sacrificed to a great parlor show room extending the full length of the house, in which there is not a single article that will bear the strain of honest daily use, or yield an atom of comfort to the user.

The burden of the laundry is in the burden of tucks and ruffles, and Hamburg trimmings, with which the sewing machine and cheap loom embroidery have overladen our garments. The sewing machine, which should have been a blessing to the household, has, I fear, been more of a curse in adding to instead of diminishing the work of women. The burden of this tax can be better appreciated when it is known that the laundries frequently charge more for "doing up" one of these ruffled, tucked, and embroidered garments than its original cost. In families of moderate means, the extra expense of this work at home amounts to an additional servant. No wonder some of our women cry out for a coöperative laundry; anything to save them from the extra burden they have imposed on themselves. But they must carry that burden in some form until they return to simpler fashions, discard superfluous trimmings, and be satisfied with plain, neat, and abundant clothing. Let no one be amazed when I say that among people of small means, cleanliness is often sacrificed to show. Neither time nor money can be afforded for the laundry work or proper changes of the highly garnitured garments that vanity and a desire to appear fine have invested them with. The comfort, beauty, and elegance of plenty of clean sweet linen are sacrificed to the drabbish, drabbling alternative of unclean, tawdry, third class, finery. The way out of all these burdens is not in co-operation to bear it, but to discard it.

The cause of our overburdened condition normal in its very beginning, and can bear nothing but bitter fruit. The tendency of all our domestic and social economy is to wretchedness and viciousness, not toward comfort or virtue. To keep up with the display of people of wealth, or even to follow them afar off, women, whose purses are limited, are tempted to resort to doubtful means. There are women who neglect no petty thrift, shrink from no meanness, great or small, in the endeavor to make a small income afford them the luxuries of a large one. Comfort and honesty are both sacrificed. Servants and children are defrauded of proper food and home comfort to add their quota to the show fund of the establishment. If we will give up show, and expend our efforts upon genuine comfort, we shall have taken a long step toward releasing ourselves from the bondage of worse than Egyptian slavery to which we have condemned ourselves. When the little knot of good women who are wont to meet in Union square come together again "to discuss vital social questions and to remove the causes of social vices and irregularities" let them consider "House and Home Necessities" from the new standpoint of retrenchment with a view to comfort and true elegance.—[New York Evening Mail.

THE DAY.

Today Mr. Beecher is sixty two. The trial lasts like sixty, too.

Mr. Beach concluded his argument for the plaintiff in the Beecher case yesterday, when he denounced Mr. Tracy's conduct in severe terms. Counsel for the defence made forty requests to his honor to charge, and plaintiff's counsel offered affidavits containing new evidence on which to base a motion for the reopening of the case.

As a result of the recent developments concerning the administration of Indian affairs on the plains, the committee on the reorganization of the departments is considering the expediency of transferring the Indian bureau to the War Department, the supplies to be issued by the army quartermasters, and the annuities to be paid by the army paymasters. It is also proposed to transfer the pension office to the War Department. These reforms can not be made too soon.

THE QUESTION OF PARTIES,—PRESENT AND FUTURE.

The Democrats seem to be doing little or nothing to take advantage of the divisions and defeats of the Republicans. Immedi-were in a position to secure for themselves the elections of 1876, but their chances for that great victory have been steadily diminishing since that time. The Democratic party of New York, the most important state in the Union, especially for that party, narrowly escaped a disastrous division in consequence of Gov. Tilden's manly course regarding the canal frauds. The Democratic speaker of the assembly was the determined foe of canal reform. That division has not taken place, but it is perfectly evident that a large proportion of the Democrats in New York are hostile to measures of reform either in state or municipal affairs. During the last session the Democratic governor of New York vetoed no less than one hundred and thirty seven bills passed by the Democratic legislature. Such a fact speaks ill for Democratic party unity, and it speaks still worse for the character of the average Democratic legislator. Democratic affairs in Ohio are little if any better. The state convention adopted a free liquor and paper money platform and nominated a hard money man for governor and a temperance man for lieutenant governor, and these men accepted nominations on such a platform, which shows the extent to which they are controlled by principle. The Democratic Senator from that state has been one of the strongest advocates of specie in Congress. He supports the paper platform, which shows how deep money seated his sense of right is. A statesman who is a hard money man by conviction and a paper money man from expediency may get the Presidential nomination of his party, but we don't believe it. The currency heresy has afflicted the party as far East as Maine in the Democratic state convention of which the other day the disreputable Ohio currency resolution was offered, and though defeated, it was supported by a considerable number of delegates. Thus far the Democrats have done nothing to indicate that they should be entrusted with the reins of government.

It is true enough that the Republican party is badly divided on the currency and other problems, but that party has possession, and if possession is not nine points in politics, it is at least an advantage. Unless the "outs" are better than the "ins" few people will think it worth while to change. It is perfectly clear, however, that public sentiment is dividing on new questions, questions that have nothing in the world to do with the Democratic or Republican parties. All the objects for which the Republican party was organized have been substantially accomplished. All the reforms that the Democrats have opposed are now so far advanced that though their progress may be checked they can not be undone. Slavery is abolished and it is childish to talk of its being re-established. The Republican may love the negro, but there is little more that he can do for him. What remains to be done for him he must do for himself with the aid of time. The Democrat may hate the negro, but he can not re-enslave or disfranchise him. As the negro increases in intelligence he will overcome the vantage ground, and as he increases in wealth he will dissipate the ill-will of the Democrat. The doctrine of state sovereignty in its offensive features is as dead as a door nail. The questions over which Republicans and Democrats contended are as dead now as are Sumner and Douglass and Breckinridge and the other great men who used to discuss those questions.

The Democratic party began its existence as the radical party, but in a few years it changed its character and during the greater part of its existence it has comprised the Tories of the United States. It objects now, as it long has, to change, or progress. It abused the Republicans for introducing greenbacks, and now, having got used to them, it shows an increasing unwillingness to change back to specie. But on this question the party is divided. What is needed is to have the Republican party, the party of advance and improvement, set up the standard of hard money or any other reform or forward step, and then allow all the negatives of the country, all the old fogies, all the obstructive elements, to gather in opposition and call themselves Democrats, or anything they like. Such a course would drive many voters from the present Republican party to the opposition, but it would also bring in recruits and, what is the most important thing, it would raise living questions, real issues between the parties, and would make it possible for each party to be self-consistent and united. The independent vote will increase so long as the only question between the parties is one of official honesty and the personal characters of candidates for office. It was well enough ten years ago, but today there is no reason why Blaine and Morton should belong to one party. Every day diminishes the reasons why Kelly and MacDonald should oppose each other. The two Senators from Ohio ought to belong to the same party, whatever be its name and between Tilden and Pendleton there can be no real agreement in the future. The questions on which they once agreed are as dead as are the questions on which Wilson and Gaston of our neighboring state disagreed. Party lines can not be distinctly seen now because time is obliterating the old ones, and the new ones are only just appearing.

PERIODICALS.

The Phrenological Journal and Life Illustrated

for July appears upon our table, laden with mental wealth. The articles on Prof. Henry, of the Smithsonian Institute, Cardinal McCloskey, Types of Development, Longevity of Brain Workers, Science and Religion, Vaccination, are well written and full of information. The sketches entitled How I Changed my Nose, Give us the Truth, Blind Folks, Unconscious Fascination, Women's Rights, Morality and Religion, are witty and instructive. And there is entertainment of the right sort in Seven Wonders of the World, Hettie Malvern, Negro Life in Africa. The Editorial Department is unusually rich, and the illustrations profuse. S. R. Wells & Co., publishers, 737 Broadway, New York.

BOOK NOTICES.

Men and Idioms of Wall Street is the title of a new book telling about Wall street, the exchange, the bears, the bulls, puts and calls, the men who have become celebrated as millionaires, the Goulds, Vanderbilts, Drews and Jeromes and how they have made themselves rich. Sent free to any address by John Hickling & Co., 72 Broadway, New York.

Annette; or The Lady of the Pearls, is published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers. It been translated from the French, expressly for this edition, by Mrs. Martha Lafitte Johnson, of Philadelphia. Readers of the best novels of the day are no doubt well aware that the younger Dumas bounded into popularity with the velocity and dazzling brilliancy of a rocket. He rose suddenly to fame through his wondrous romance of "Camille; the Camelia Lady." "Annette; or, The Lady of the Pearls," from the same brilliant pen, is a companion picture to the famous and immortal "La Dame Aux Camelias," and it is marked with all the intense passionate power which characterizes that brilliant book. All who have read "Camille," should at once peruse "Annette," for it is a counterpart of young Dumas' first and greatest work. Like it, yet unlike it, for the plot, characters, incidents, and localities, are all new, yet in their artistic entirety are made to bear a resemblance to "Camille." It is a pithy supplement to the great original and the plot is of such absorbing interest, and the various characters introduced are so arranged, that the reader is held enchained from the beginning to the end of the work. "Annette; or, the Lady of the Pearls," is published in a large octavo volume, price seventy-five cents, and is for sale by all booksellers, or copies will be sent to any one, post-paid, on receipt of price by the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.

Bertha's Engagement, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens's new society novel has just been published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Stevens, though a prolific writer, is ever fresh and pleasing. There is an endless variety which is as surprising as it is agreeable to her readers, and one might read every work she has ever given to the public without being wearied by sameness of style or discovering a similarity of plot or construction. Her earlier books, such as "Fashion and Famine," "Mary Derwent," &c., took the public by storm on account of the great degrees of excellence in them, and all are distinguished by that striking dramatic element which will always secure a large class of readers, by the sustained interest of the plot and by a force and vigor of style that give them the impress of a strong and original genius. Her new society novel, "Bertha's Engagement," is a story of American life, and it will interest its readers from the beginning. Indeed the opening chapter, in which the hero and heroine encounter a terrible danger, is one of the most exciting of all. The danger arises from the breaking of a reservoir, and a consequent flood that devastates a valley in New England. This chapter is, indeed, a vivid description of a real calamity that occurred a year or two ago, and caused great excitement throughout the country. This strongly-written chapter is introductory to a highly-wrought romance of love, jealousy, rivalry, murder and revenge, the dramatic situations succeeding one another in a rather bewildering way, and the various characters figuring in a very active manner before the reader. The stories of Mrs. Stephens are adapted to the taste of much the larger portion of the American reading public, but none of them will please her readers better than "Bertha's Engagement" is sure to do. To those who are not familiar with Mrs. Anna S. Stephens's qualities as a novelist, we can sincerely advise the perusal of her books, as models of the fiction of our day. "Bertha's Engagement" is issued in a large duodecimo volume, at the low price of $1.75 in cloth, and copies will be sent by mail, to any place, postpaid, by the publishers, on receipt of price. All of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens's books, twenty two in all, are put up in sets, each set in a neat box, and are bound in morocco cloth, in different colors, in elegant and durable style, with new and beautifully designed backs, in full gilt, price $38.50 a set, and are published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, No. 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., who will send a set to any one, to any place, per express, freight paid, on receipt of price.

A polite invitation often reiterated brings callers. As it costs something to keep up the invitations, it is worth while to treat the visitors well.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

Dr. V. Mott Francis has sold his lot corner Everett place and Francis street containing 11,139 feet to Commander E. O. Matthews, U. S. N., for $3898.65, or 35 cents per foot.

Francis Stanhope has sold a lot of land containing 9,944 square feet, on the corner of Gibbs and Homer streets, for $750, to George T. Jameson, the inspector of customs, of Galveston, Texas, who will probably build upon it at an early day.

VISIT TO THE ASYLUM.

The annual visit of the commissioners and invited guests to the Newport asylum came off yesterday. There were present his honor Mayor Slocum, the members of both branches of the city council, officers of the fire department, representatives of the press and others who were invited to do honor to the occasion, the whole making up a larger party than has usually attended. The visitors made the customary inspection of the buildings and grounds and found everything in the most satisfactory condition. Neatness and order were everywhere observed, and it is doubtful if a similar institution can anywhere be found where better provision is made for the wants of the unfortunate than here. Mr. and Mrs. Whaley seem to be the right persons in the right place, and their service is duly appreciated.

Under the present management the asylum farm may be regarded as one of the best in this section of the country. In all that goes to make up good farming it is far in advance of most of the so-called model farms of which so much is said and written. Some of the thoroughbred stock, particularly the Ayrshires, is among the best we have ever seen.

After the inspection and the visit to the stone crusher and other points of interest the company sat down to dinner which was in all respects the equal of those served in other years. After the repast speeches were in order and brief and appropriate remarks were made by Mayor Slocum, the Rev. W. F. Whitcher, the Rev. J. P. Taylor, F. W. Tilton, L. D. Davis, H. W. Cozzens and Gen. A. L. Burdick. A letter was read from the Hon. Thomas Coggeshall regretting the necessity for his absence and expressing his approval of the management of the institution. Dinner being over, the aldermen, councilmen, commissioners, etc., took their cigars and joined in a game of croquet, after which the company separated and returned to the city, each man pleased with himself and satisfied with the world around him.

No Free Trade for Conanicut.—We are astonished to hear that our neighbors on Conanicut Island are opposed to cheap groceries, and a reduction in price as regards the necessaries of life. But this seems to be the case as we hear that they have risen up in rebellion against the coming of Newport tradesmen, who have been proposing to act the part of genuine missionaries in supplying them with the good things of this world for only a modest compensation. We hear that yesterday, our neighbor W. H. Crandall of John street was put under arrest for selling goods at less than the market price though the officers of the law put the charge in the form of an accusation of peddling without license. It is said there was a remarkable flight and pursuit from the Ferry to Conanicut Park, resulting in a capture and temporary release which was to be followed by an examination into the facts before the people's court today. We cannot tell what the ultimate result may be of this great commotion, but we suspect the fight which has been will go on for some time, for Crandall is bound to sell, and invites the whole world to his market. The people of Jamestown are protecting home industry with a vengeance.

TESTIMONIAL TO THE REV. S. C. HILL.

In W. P. Clarke's window is a set of complimentary resolutions handsomely framed in black walnut with a velvet border which are to be forwarded to the Rev. S. C. Hill by Stevens Post, No. 2, G. A. R., of this city, of which post Mr. Hill was chaplain. The engraving was do ne by S. H. Rogers at Schofield's Commercial College, Providence, and it does more credit to Mr. Rogers's penmanship than his spelling. The resolutions are as follows:—

Headquarters Stevens Post, No. 2, G. A. R.

At a special meeting of this post the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, The Rev. S. C. Hill who has been our chaplain for so many years past has, on account of failing health, been obliged to sever his connection with us, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the members of Stevens Post, No. 2, express to our late chaplain the sorrow we feel that we are thus obliged to lose him from among us, and we desire to assure him of our affection and esteem and our sincere regret at the separation.

Resolved, That we keep upon our records our appreciation of the earnestness and willingness which our chaplain has always shown toward us as a post whenever called on, and trusting his health may be benefitted by the change will ever be our humble prayer.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be properly engrossed and sent to the Rev. S. C. Hill by the post commander and post adjutant.

The Commissariat of the Body.
The stomach is the commissariat of the physical system. It furnishes the natural sustenance of every organ. If disordered, the whole body languishes; but, however affected, its tone and vigor may always be restored by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The regularity in its operations which this grand tonic alterative establishes is the most direct means of obviating physical debility, impurities of the blood and affections of the discharging organs. We know that if digestion or the habit of the body is obstructed, the entire physique is weakened in consequence of insufficient conversion of the food into blood; and it is equally certain that the refuse of the system not being wholly thrown off is sure to contaminate the vital fluid and surcharge the bowels and kidneys with vitiated matter which weakens and inflames them. The Bitters, by strengthening the organs of discharge, enables them to act vigorously, and thus liberates the pent up waste which would otherwise work incalculable injury. je22-1w

THE

Patent Step Ladder

JUST THE THING FOR HOUSECLEANING, AT

Langley & Sharpe's,

ap10 195 THAMES ST.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1875.

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Black Hills Survey.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

A dispatch from Prof. Jenney, geologist of the Black Hills, expedition, states that he has found gold on Castle creek, but the yield has been small and the richness of the ground overestimated.

The Principles Governing Invoice Values.

The Treasury Department decides that two general principles govern the declaration of invoice values, namely: First—As to merchandise acquired by purchase, the invoice must state the actual cost thereof, with charges, etc., and second, as to merchandise acquired otherwise than by purchase, the invoice must exhibit the actual market value thereof at the period of exportation in the principal markets of the country from whence exported, with the charges, and not merely the cost to the manufacturer or producer.

A New Sixth Auditor.

J. M. McGrew received a commission as sixth auditor of the Treasury this morning, under the new law reorganizing the Treasury Department. There will be no chief clerk to the auditor, and the person performing that duty will be known as deputy auditor, at a salary of $2500. F. B. Lilley, clerk in the office, has been appointed to that position. The new law also increases the salary of auditor from $3000 to $4000.

A New International Exchange System.

Preparatory steps are being taken to bring about a system of international exchange between Great Britain and the United States through the medium of co-operative societies in Great Britain and the Patrons of Husbandry in America. The English co-operative societies propose to operate with the Grangers on direct trade lines, sending their own ships, freighted with their own goods, to exchange for American products, such as wheat and cotton, on fair, equitable and economical terms.

FROM NEW YORK.

Yellow Fever on the Brazilian Coast—Loss of a British Steamship, etc., etc.

NEW YORK, June 23.

The Anglo Brazilian Times, of Rio, May 22, says: The frigate Lancaster, which lost a doctor and several seamen here, took the yellow fever with it to Bahia, and other medical men and an officer died on the passage. By permission of the minister of marine the frigate obtained the Brazilian naval doctor to go with the vessel to the United States. The British steamship Amazon is reported sunk off Para. The crew and passengers were saved, and it is expected that part of the cargo will be saved.

Indian Supplies.

An investigation of the supplies furnished the Indians today, by members of the press found everything very excellent, if they ever reach the Indians. Commissioner Smith says that the purchases here for the Indians amounted to $8,500,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Furious Storm.

DUBUQUE, June 23.

The most terrible storm that ever swept over this section, visited here last night, continuing from 12 o'clock till daylight.

A Severe Storm.

COLUMBUS, Ga., June 22.

A terrible hail storm passed over the vicinity of Troy, Saturday, destroying the crop of cotton and corn. The hailstones were as large as hens' eggs.

Indians Stealing Horses.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 23.

A large band of Indians are in Medina county stealing horses and another band are in Kerr county. They are believed to be Kickapoos from Mexico.

Hostile Indians.

OMAHA, June 23.

Advices from Spotted Tail's agency state that three large war parties left that vicinity on the 17th, one each for the Ponca or Pawnee, Ute and Shoshone reservations. It is thought that a gigantic Indian war is about to be inaugurated. Information has been sent to the Indian agents.

Masonic.

NASHUA, N. H., June 23.

St. John's day will be celebrated here tomorrow in fine style. At 12 o'clock, M., the Portland Commandery, with Chandler's band, and delegations from the commanderies at Boston, Lowell, Worcester and Manchester, will arrive here and be received by the St. George's Commandery of this city, making a street parade, and dining at the Tremont House. The visitors will leave at 5 o'clock for Worcester.

DEATH AT THE FEAST.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: A festivity which took place the other day at Armenia seems to have been marked by some disagreeable incidents. The Armenian Bishop of Kbiry, a small town near Erzinghian, was, it seems, invited to dine with "a Christian notable" of his diocese. The dinner did not prove a success. Late at night the bishop was carried home lifeless, but it was asserted that the prelate had merely died in a fit of drunkenness, and no notice would probably have been taken of the matter had not the pleasant delusion been speedily dissipated by an affirmation made by his servant before the vali of Erzeroum that his master had been murdered. "Before dinner," said the servant, "high words rose between the bishop and his host, but the other guests interfered, and succeeded in appeasing the disputants." Later in the evening, however, the quarrel was renewed, and in the height of the discussion the kiatib suddenly extinguished the lights and strangled the bishop. When the candles were relighted quite a gloom was cast over the assembled party by the discovery that the bishop was dead. The story told by the servant has created some excitement at Erzeroum, and the governor general, who has the reputation of being a just man, had, by latest accounts, ordered that the body of the deceased bishop should be brought to that city and examined, promising, moreover, that if the result of the post mortem examination was not satisfactory, "the Christian notable" should be called upon for an explanation.

IRISH LACE.—A writer says: Irish nuns excel in the making of beautiful, delicate needlework and of lace. Persons learned in such matters can tell instantly on looking at a piece of work at what convent it was done. The crotchet made under the superintendence of the Youghal nuns is exquisite, and so fine that it has in many cases been mistaken for other kinds of lace. I have heard of a lady who purchased a quantity of what she believed to be old Roman point, in Italy, at a great expense. On bringing it home she took it to her dressmaker in Dublin, and gave it to her as a trimming for a dress, with many cautions against waste, and with repeated orders not to cut it unnecessarily. The woman smiled when she heard the discolored work called antique point. She got a magnifying glass and showed her customer that she had in reality bought Irish crotchet lace, which had been dipped in some yellow fluid in order to give it an appearance of great age.

Scrofulous Catarrh Cured.
LETTER FROM
MRS. JAMES STOPFORD, OF NEW BEDFORD.
(From Providence Journal.)

To the Editor of the Journal:—
DEAR SIR:—Will you please print this letter in the Journal, that everybody may know of my great cure, and the afflicted be able to be benefited by the knowledge. Scrofulous Catarrh of the worst form afflicted me several years and everything I tried to do for it did no good. My throat was badly diseased and a portion of the roof of my mouth was destroyed. Large quantities of green yellowish matter, mixed with blood, came from my head and throat, which was nauseating and disgusting in the extreme. I could scarcely talk so as to be understood, had very little appetite, and when I had, could not swallow anything except very soft food, and my health was greatly reduced, and I was falling fast, when last Spring I read in the Journal about the cure of Mrs. F. Bryant, of Fall River, by Dr. W. H. CARPENTER, at 51 Dorrance street, Providence, which gave me hope, for I thought if she could be cured of Catarrh and Scrofula after a part of her nose and throat was destroyed, there was some hope for me. So I went to Providence and placed myself under Dr. Carpenter's treatment, and thanks be to God, I am cured of that dreadful disease. My head and throat are both well and sound. No discharges or soreness. My appetite is good, my health wonderfully improved, and in truth about as good as ever, which greatly surprises my friends and neighbors, who thought I could not be saved, and that I was foolish to go away from home to be doctored, but since my recovery several of them have gone themselves to Providence to be doctored by Dr. Carpenter.
Shall be pleased to impart any information respecting my case to any person interested, if they will call at my residence. MRS. JAS. STOPFORD,
33 Austin street,
New Bedford, June 17.

Newport Testimony.

STATEMENT OF MR. G. F. RICKETSON OF TIVERTON.

Mr. Editor:—Please state my case in your paper for that such cures can be performed, should be known. Catarrh with all its disagreeable symptoms afflicted me for years and until dyspepsia and indigestion resulted. I was fast running down for I could not eat anything that agreed with me, and I did not know what to do for folks said "Catarrh could not be cured, and you are foolish to throw away your money," &c., but I had to do something and I went to Dr. Carpenter. He cured me, I have been perfectly well the last few months, and have no reason to think, I shall ever have any more trouble of that kind. I want it known for so many persons think Catarrh cannot be cured.
GEO. F. RICKETSON,
With Capt. Joseph Church, Tiverton.
Newport, May 15, 1875.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. JOHN W. DAVIS OF NEWPORT.

My grandson, Burnside, (son of Mr. Benjamin Davis) was sadly afflicted with Catarrh. Besides the annoying and disagreeable symptoms usually accompanying this loathsome disease, his memory was becoming impaired. He paid little attention to what was going on around him, or what was said to him; did not take much interest in anything, and was gradually losing his hearing. We felt that something must be done to save him, and therefore placed him under Dr. Carpenter's treatment, which proved successful and satisfactory. He is restored to health, both mentally and physically, and to use his own words, is "A NEW MADE BOY." We feel it a duty to make the case public, that others may know where they can obtain relief from that dreadful disease. MRS. JOHN W. DAVIS.
Bay View avenue, April 29th, 1875.

STATEMENT OF MR. G. E. HULL.

This may certify to Dr. Carpenter's success in treating my daughter who had become so deaf from catarrh that we were obliged to speak very loudly to her, to make her hear us. We found that she might become totally deaf, the way she was going on. Dr. C.'s treatment has removed the catarrh and deafness to such an extent, she can now hear a whisper. This case is well known in Jamestown, where we reside.
G. E. HULL.
Newport, April 15th, 1875.

Mr. Arnold's Card.

DR. CARPENTER,—Dear sir: your treatment for chronic catarrh in my case has been successful, although the complaint was of some years standing and had begun to impair my hearing. I think I am perfectly cured and recommend similar sufferers to apply to you. I reside in Jamestown.
F. A. ARNOLD.
NEWPORT, R. I., April 1st, 1875.

Testimony of Captain Hammond of Newport.

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.,—DEAR SIR:—Allow me to thank you, through the NEWS and JOURNAL, for the great benefits conferred upon me by your treatment for Chronic Catarrh. Five weeks ago, when I consulted you, I was prostrated and nearly worn out with that terrible disease. Under your treatment I began to improve at once, and in two weeks was able to resume my employment, and have continued to improve up to this time. Yours Sincerely,
J. F. HAMMOND,
Newport, March 18, 1875. No. 6 Brinley street,

TESTIMONY OF MR. F. M. HAWLEY OF PROVIDENCE.
(From Providence Journal.)

W. H. CARPENTER, M. D.—Dear Sir: Your treatment of my wife for Chronic Catarrh has been attended with the happiest results, and I deem it a duty as well as a pleasure to tender you our thanks publicly that other sufferers may be induced to apply to you. We believed the disease incurable, and should not have consulted you had not a friend informed us of the success that attended your treatment of her, in a very aggravated case. Yours, gratefully,
FREDERICK M. HAWLEY,
With J. B. Barnaby & Co., corner North Main and College streets.
Providence, April 6th, 1875.

CERTIFICATE OF MR. JOHN CASWELL.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 19, 1874.
TO THE EDITOR OF NEWS:—I wish to recommend Dr. Carpenter's treatment to such of the community as have Scrofula. I inherited it, and it has always run in my blood, and last Fall it became terrible, injuring my health, and attacking my head and face particularly and so disfigured me that a neighbor that met me did not know me until I spoke to him. I applied to Dr. Carpenter, at the Perry House, and his medicines have met with gratifying success. My health is now good, have very little trouble with the humor, face looks natural, and I hope with a little more treatment, to eradicate the poisonous humor from my system entirely. I reside in Middletown.
JOHN CASWELL.

Catarrh and Polypus.
Home Testimony.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 6th, 1874.
This is to proclaim what Dr. Carpenter has done for me. I suffered from Catarrh 40 years, and the last 10 years my nasal passages were filled with Polypus. I employed physicians from time to time, and two years ago, went to Boston, and was doctored there three months, and left off worse than I began, and I was almost discouraged. But I felt that I must do something, for I was obliged to keep my mouth open and my health was becoming impaired. So I went to Fall River last Spring, and placed myself under the care of Dr. Carpenter. His treatment proved highly satisfactory. He removed and cured the Polypus, I can breathe naturally, the Catarrh troubles me very little and altogether I am comfortable and as well as a man 60 years of age, can expect to be, and I hope this testimony may be the means of securing relief to other sufferers. I reside in Middletown.

NEWPORT EXOTIC GARDEN.
WHERE can I find it? is sometimes asked by strangers, but never by old visitors.
Now is the time to secure your bedding plants. We never before had such a quantity and never such fine plants as this season, consisting of all the new and rare plants. All we desire, is to come and look and see for yourselves. Roses, Dracenas, Centaurias, Geraniums of all sorts, Carnations, Coleous, &c., all of these by the hundred or thousand. Hundreds of other varieties of bedding and foliage plants, all at low rates. Baskets, Stands, Vases, Jardinieres. A fine lot of Ferns, Begonias, Caladiums, Palms, Euphorbias, Camelias and Azalias, Rose Buds by the hundred, and everything pertaining to a first-class Horticultural Establishment. ☞ All orders received this season for Boquets, Baskets, Cut Flowers, and decorations for parties and weddings, received at the garden, as we have vacated our store on Bellevue av., to avoid extortionate rent. Trees of various sorts to be found in addition to the above. Galvin & Geraghty, Dearborn and Spring streets, Newport, R. I. my5
